Winner—Ch. h, by St. Blaise—Woodflower trained by W. S. Laird.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving.

St. Wood ran on the outside through the entire trip, went all around the field at the turn into the homestretch and finishing fast was going away at the end. Ethel Davis was off running and showed much early speed, but tired when it came to a drive. Little Duchess II. was wearing Ethel Davis down at the end and would have beaten her out in another stride. Fleuron got away tangled up and was made too much use of in the first half. Frank Mc had a rough trip.

Scratched—39211 The Boer, 109; 39130 Anglesea, 106; 39153 Ed L., 106.

Overweights—Axares, 1 pound; Nellie Bawn, 5.

Winner—B. f, by Esher—Kate Pelletier (trained by J. Morris).

Went to post at 3:08. At post 7 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same.

Silk Maid was lucky at the start, displayed a great flight of speed and was only cantering at the end. Dorice ran in improved form and was easily the best of the others. Geranium was driving to the limit all of the last furlong to stall off Lyryst. The latter ran out at the far turn, but finished going fast. Memories is probably overrated and tired when called on.

Snow Cap was always outrun.

Scratched—Danube, 103.

Overweights—Silk Maid, 4 pounds; Geranium, 3.

39239 THIRD RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B f, by Fris—Julia Magee (trained by J. S. Rothert).

Went to start at 3:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Aimless was crowded back soon after the start, but closed a big gap, wore the leaders down while rounding the far turn and came away with a rush at the end. Adelante seemed dangerous on the turn, but tired at the end. Welsh Girl finished gamely under a drive. Tuft ran poorly. Little Gem showed early speed, but quit and was eased up when beaten. Glenwood, when running well in the stretch, was bumped by Adelante and knocked off his stride.

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 24, 49, 1:16, 1:42, 1:47.

Winner—B. f, by Florist—Julia Magee (trained by J. S. Rothert).

Winner—B. c, by King Eric—Tea's Over (trained by J. B. Respass).

Went to post at 4:14. At post 7 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same.

Dick Welles beat the barrier a couple of lengths, was off running and made a show of his field. He looked big when going to the post, but displayed great speed. Jack Rattlin ran his race and was easily the best of the others. Hilee began slowly, but caught Bardolph and Harlem Lane tiring in the stretch run. Woodlake was always outrun.

Scratched—(38910) Silk Cord, 116; (38246) Olefant, 102; (39179) Luralighter, 100; 39210

Went to post at 4:50. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily.

Japan was lucky in escaping the jam at the start and showed early speed, raced Gay American and Prince of Pilsen to subjection in the first quarter, but had to be hustled along at the end to stall off Lonsdale. The latter made up ground and finished very gamely under a drive. Marshal Ney ran a winning race from where he got off, closed a big gap while rounding the far turn, but the effort told at the end.

HARLEM NOTES.

McChesney worked well at Harlem Park yesterday morning for trainer Hildreth, who declares the western champion will be right at his best for the Harlem National Handicap a week from Saturday, if no bad weather intervenes.

T. C. McDowell was so pleased with the way his great colt Allan-a-Dale came out of his mile-race at Latonia on Monday that he has written to reassure the Harlem Jockey Club he has a "sure starter and probable winner." This was Allan's second start this spring, after being laid up for a year subsequent to winning the Kentucky Derby. A few days ago McDowell tried him in a six-furlong race and was pleased when he ran second and cooled out all right. Now he has done the same at a mile. With another race or two he will be about ready for the mile and three-sixteenths at Harlem, June 6. Monarka, from the same stable, also is being fitted for the big Harlem race.

Belle's Commoner made this season's debut in the same race, but was plainly short for a mile trip the first time out. He and Six Shooter and the Derby colts Dick Welles, Collonade and Bernays will not reach Harlem Park for a week.

Carroll Reid, trainer for Middleton & Bluth, has wired Secretary Nathanson of the Harlem Jockey Club that his stable will reach the Proviso course today or tomorrow. He has The Picket, Shooting Star and Manru in the $10,000 Harlem National Handicap.

John H. Morris has written he expects to arrive at Harlem about the end of the week with fifteen horses of his own and George J. Long's stable. They come from Louisville.

Fred Cook, who has Linguist and Lendin in the Harlem National, says he has thirty-three horses stabled at Harlem.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Charles A. Wolfe has arrived from the east with Pride of Galore and Examiner.

J. C. Cahn's bay mare South Breeze, by Sir Dixon—Lake Breeze, is coming up from St. Louis to run in Saturday's two mile race, the Prairie Stakes.

John A. Drake's chestnut colt Ort Wells, by King Eric—Tea's Over, and therefore a brother of J. B. Respass' Derby candidate Dick Welles, is one of the list among the two-year-olds carded to start for the Vernal Stakes this afternoon. Though a full brother of the famous Dick and somewhat similarly named, there is a difference in the spelling. There are two "e's" in Dick Welles, but Ort Wells is named after a broker in the Board of Trade office of Harris, Gates & Co.

Assurances received from owners by Manager Kuhl and Secretary Clark of the Chicago Jockey Club lead them to believe both of Saturday's stake races will have large and representative fields. There is a lot of speed among those likely to start in the Flight Stakes, at six furlongs, those that probably will sport silk being St. Minor, Nellie Waddell, L'Etrienne, High Chancellor, Sweet Billie, Toah, Golden Rule, Tom Maybin, Skilful, Beau Ormonde, Orfeo, Burnie Bunton and Wainamoinen.

The field for the two-mile race, the Prairie Stakes, which is a selling sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward with a gross value of nearly $3,000, is likely to be drawn from Barrack, Little Elkin or Rankin, South Breeze, Red Comyn, John McGurk, South Trimble, Nitrate, Rolling Boer, Flying Torpedo, Satin Coat, Potheen, Favonius, Gin Spray and Sam Fullen. In addition to the two stakes Saturday's card will include a high-weight handicap at five furlongs, a steeplechase handicap, an open race for two-year-olds, and a purse race at a mile.

Harry New, which recently went amiss while being prepared for the Hawthorne Handicap, will be blistered and rested for a time.

S. L'Hommiedieu bid up Lampon, the winner of the closing race, to $1,700, an advance of $800 over his entered price, trainer R. Tucker bidding him in.

Jockey Dominick, who has been riding the last few days in St. Louis, will arrive today and will have the mount on Linguist. He will return tonight to St. Louis and ride there until the opening of Harlem.

Starter Holtman stated that Sam Fullen would not break when asked to do so by Jockey Booker when the barrier was released.

Dodie S. was injured in her last start, and will not be raced again for some time.

Jockey Helgesen was called up in the judges' stand after he had landed Lampon the winner. The judges gave him a sharp lecture and informed him that riding his mount in front one day an trailing the field the next, would not be tolerated, and that if he wanted to continue his vocation he must in future be careful how he rides.

Flying Torpedo was quoted at 5, 2 and evens in the majority of the books after he had run away. The prices against the others were Hargis 4 to 5, Airlight 3 to 2, First Chip 6, and Hoodwink 8 to 1.

ST. LOUIS FORM CHART-CONTINUED.

HANDZOR W 103 8 8 8 8 Donnelly W M Hayes 15 100 75 25
Time, 24, 49, 56.

Winner—Br. f, by St. George—Shadow Dance (trained by T. P. Kidd).
Went to post at 3:13. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
Sararose was skillfully ridden next to the rail, saved all ground possible and Troxler stole the race while Dale and Dominick were watching each other. Bill Knight was taken back at the start and raced outside of his field and ran ten lengths farther than anything in the race and should have won. Cognomen ran a good race, showing surprising improvement. Nannie Hodge showed much speed, but tired in the stretch run.
Scratched—39181 Gus Heidorn, 107; (39181) Mafalda, 104; 39213 Ascot, 100.
Overweights—Sararose, 4 pounds; Bill Knight, 2.
Sararose, show, 7 to 10. Bill Knight, show, out. Cognomen, show, 4 to 1. Nannie Hodge, show, 2 to 5.

39245 THIRD RACE—1 1-8 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hastings—Carrara (trained by T. Lillard).
Went to post at 3:47. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
Cast Iron ran in greatly improved form, was taken the short way, came fast in the stretch and was given a strong finish. Pathos was cut off twice and weakly ridden and allowed to lag early, was then forced through a small opening in the last sixteenth and allowed to flounder at the finish. At the weights he was much the best. Neversuch ran in much improved form. John Bull ran his race. Kunja by no means ran her race and can do much better. El Caney showed well for seven furlongs, but tired badly in the stretch.

Pirateer ran a good race, but weakened under pressure at the end. Golden Glitter got off well in her stride and displayed speed, but tired in the stretch. Oudenarde ran a good race for his first time out this year. Josie F. seemed to sulk and failed to run to her real form.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Benckart was ridden a waiting race for the first six furlongs, wore down Wheeler B. and Animosity in the stretch run and came away easing up at the end. Wheeler B. was raced into exhaustion in chasing Animosity, but held on gamely. Lou Rey, off none too well, came fast in the stretch and got third place without trouble. Animosity was raced to exhaustion in setting the pace. Gold Cure quit badly.
